ANDVSA Philosophy Statement

The Alaska Network on Domestic Violence and Sexual Assault (ANDVSA) is committed to the elimination of interpersonal violence and societal oppression in the lives of women and children.

Collectively, we believe interpersonal violence is the use of force or threat to achieve and maintain control over others. We believe societal oppression is the abuse of power which systematically creates conditions that condone violent acts.

Collectively, we believe that the elimination of interpersonal and societal violence is most effectively advanced through: grass roots efforts of local-based programs; communities that hold abusers accountable; and networking and coalition building at the local, state, and national levels.

Collectively, we believe in the self-determination of women, empowerment through support and education, and the right of all persons to live without fear of interpersonal violence regardless of race, gender, national origin, age, ability, religion or sexual orientation.
