Each participant will be taking what they learned at Lead On! back to their home communities and creating a project. Please help us get an idea of why you want to come to Lead On! and what you would like to see happen in your community.

1. Why would you like to attend Lead On!?

2. Why is being a leader important to you?

3. What type of leadership roles have you been in, if any? If you have not held any leadership positions, why do you think you would make a good leader?

4. Why is discussing nonviolence, dating, and equality important to you?

5. Are there other issues you think need to be discussed?

6. If there was one thing you could get your peers to think about, what would it be?

7. List creative ways you will bring information from the mini-summit back to your community? (e.g. event, media campaign, project) How will it improve the well-being of your community?

8. A limited number of scholarships will be awarded. Will lack of a scholarship prevent you from attending?
